New online cohort to begin January 2022

Program features
This program provides a pathway to meaningful, important work with college students, while utilizing a competency-based curriculum that emphasizes experiential learning and prepares students to begin or advance their career in student affairs.

- Competency-based curriculum ensures a deep understanding of the student affairs profession
- Build a professional network with community and institutional partners for mentorship and support
- Focus on enhancing skills needed for careers in residence life, student activities, career services, admissions, financial aid, and multicultural student affairs
- Flexible, online part-time program designed for working professionals

Program outcomes
Students will develop strong communication and research analysis skills while demonstrating knowledge in each of the 10 competency areas:

- Personal and Ethical Foundations
- Values, Philosophy, and History
- Assessment, Evaluation, and Research
- Law, Policy, and Governance
- Organizational and Human Resources
- Leadership
- Social Justice and Inclusion
- Student Learning and Development
- Technology
- Advising and Support
